

---

JENNIFER SHOOK

---

Jennifer Shook is a tax attorney and the newest member of the Leaffer Law legal team. Together with her colleagues, she assists nonprofit organizations and charitable foundations on a variety of tax, corporate and transactional matters. She is particularly interested in the area of venture philanthropy, which pairs her background work with emerging companies and her desire to work with nonprofit social enterprises.

303.781.6899 | jshook@leafferlaw.com

Experience

Earlier in her career, Jennifer was a tax associate with Cooley Godward and Holme Roberts & Owen. She is excited to be returning to the practice of law after an extended leave of absence to care for her three young children.

Jennifer is a member of the Forum of Women Entrepreneurs and a founding member of the nonprofit Wellstone Action! that focuses on the training and development of candidates for public office. In her free time, she enjoys trail running and spending time with her family.

Community Service

- Forum of Women Entrepreneurs, Member
- Wellstone Action!, Founding Member
- The Bristol Court HOA Board President

Education

- Georgetown University Law Center LL.M. (1999) with distinction
- Creighton University School of Law J.D. (1998) cum laude
- Creighton University B.S.B.A. (1995) summa cum laude

- State of Nebraska Board of Public Accountancy Certified Public Accountant Certificate Holder (1998)

Bar Admissions

- Nebraska
- Colorado