
DANNY HERNÁNDEZ

Danny Hernández is the administrative assistant/paralegal for Leaffer Law Group where he assists attorneys with administrative functions and technology support that maximizes efficiency and efficacy in the office. Danny also provides support with document drafting and related filings for matters including corporate formation documents, tax forms, or charitable solicitation agreements. Danny is dedicated to providing excellent client-service and lays the foundation for effective working relationships.

303.781.6899 | DHernandez@leafferlaw.com

Experience

Before joining Leaffer Law, Danny served as a paralegal to an immigration attorney and as a community liaison for then Colorado State Senator Mike Johnston.

Danny's commitment to human rights and intercultural communication led him to pursue undergraduate coursework in international relations and modern foreign languages. While in college, Danny served as a member of the Model United Nations team and studied abroad in Santiago de Chile and Florence, Italy.

Danny speaks fluent English, Spanish, and Italian and is a proud first-generation American. In his free time, he enjoys frequenting museums, reading, and playing strategy-based games.

Education

- Syracuse University B.A. (2017)